Community of Meal Planners Forums

MVP 1 Progress Vlog

Kelly Holtzman

For sprint ending March 24, 2021

Community of Meal Planners Forums

Supporting UNDP Goal 12: Sustainable Consumption

A forum application to support community discussion for meal planning, sustainable practices, development, and education.

Will cater to:

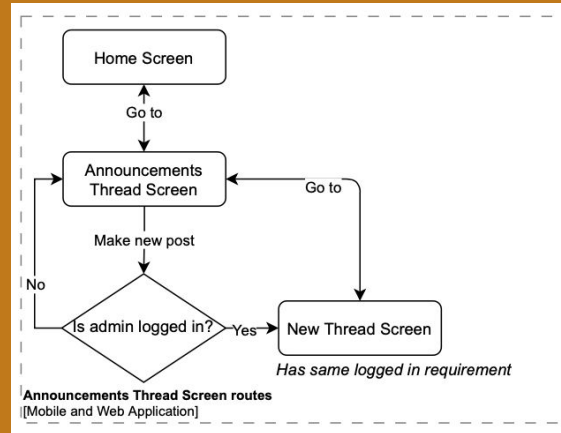

- Meal plan software developers, companies
- Meal plan consumers ( * ) and producers
- People interested in sustainable practices
- Curious people

Aiming for Community Cultivation orientation

Community Research & Understanding

The community isn't really driving change, it feels like the market and profit drive what tools are available.

It's about convenience. Single-person focus.
